

Kim Carpenter is a global speaker, trainer and executive leadership coach on the cutting edge of the movement to bring more humanity into the workplace. The creator of World Changing Women™ and Founder of People at the Center™, Kim specializes in working with leaders and their teams to hone communication skills, make difficult but empowered changes, and develop thriving company cultures that honor the human and boost the bottom line. When she's not working, you might find Kim hiking, painting or wine tasting with friends. She lives in Austin with her family and Cosmos the Wondercat, who regularly photobombs her Zoom calls.